

2019 James Beard Journalism Awards

Entry Deadline: 1/2/2019 11:59:00 PM Eastern Time

Eligibility Criteria

1. The James Beard Foundation Journalism Awards are open to any active journalist in North America for entries published – or self-published – in 2018 in any medium. Entries must be in English and cover food- or drink-related topics.
2. Journalists may submit only one entry in each Awards category. However, journalists may enter more than one Awards category. Journalists may not submit the same entry in more than one Awards category, with the exception of the MFK Fisher Distinguished Writing Award. Each entry requires a separate entry form and a non-refundable $100 entry fee for members or a $150 entry fee for non-members.
3. Entries must be submitted by the author, an agent, an editor, or a publisher. For each entry it is important to include the author's address, phone number and email address as well as an address and phone number at the publication.
4. All entries must be the original work of the author or co-authors.
5. The committee has established that there must be 10 entries in a category in order for it to be fairly judged. The committee reserves the right to combine or separate categories when appropriate and re-assign categories as appropriate.
6. Radio, television broadcasts, podcasts, webcasts, and documentaries should be submitted for a broadcast rather than journalism award.
7. Links, usernames, and passwords submitted with entries must be valid through April 30, 2019.
8. To ensure the Journalism awards attract new voices, the entry fee for first-time submissions will be waived for the entire entry period (October 15, 2018 through January 2, 2019). Individual writers who have never submitted a work and who have never had work submitted on their behalf by a media company to which they contribute are eligible for free entry.
