For Immediate Release

JAMES BEARD FOUNDATION® TO HOST 10th ANNUAL TASTE AMERICA CULINARY SERIES, PRESENTED BY CAPITAL ONE

Starting in June 2022 until March 2023, Taste America Announces the TasteTwenty; Acclaimed Chefs Participating in the Culinary Series to Support and Celebrate Local Independent Restaurants

NEW YORK, NY (May 3, 2022) – The James Beard Foundation® announces the 10th annual national Taste America culinary series. Presented by Capital One, Taste America celebrates the chefs and local independent restaurants at the heart of our communities, bringing together chefs and food lovers for unique culinary experiences across 20 U.S. cities. Proceeds from Taste America will benefit James Beard Foundation programs, including the Open for Good campaign. Tickets for the summer Taste America events are on sale now.

Now in its 10th iteration, Taste America is taking on expanded shape with the inaugural launch of the TasteTwenty—a group of 20 chef teams in 20 cities across the country working together and championing the James Beard Foundation’s mission of Good Food for Good®. The series will highlight the richness and diversity of local food culture in cities across America, while spotlighting chefs who are aligned to the Foundation’s mission. In addition, to celebrate national community, host and visiting chefs will be paired together for a chance to innovate and collaborate across different cities.

Launching in June 2022 through March 2023, this year’s lineup features a national kick-off event in Houston, 15 pop-up dinners, and four walk-around tastings with food stations curated by the James Beard Foundation. Guests attending pop-up dinners will enjoy a one-of-a-kind multi-course menu with wine pairings and cocktails, resulting from a TasteTwenty host and visiting chef collaboration; while guests at walk-around tastings will experience a stellar lineup of local chefs preparing signature tastes from their celebrated restaurants, alongside two national TasteTwenty chefs. Menus at all events promise a delicious evening benefiting the Foundation's industry-focused mission and programs.

Over the course of the year, the series will showcase the breadth of culinary creativity across the country, while highlighting the positive impact chefs have in their communities and the industry at-large. Attending a Taste America event is a special opportunity to become part of the Foundation’s vibrant and growing national culinary community, comprising food lovers and industry professionals alike.

“We are thrilled to announce our next iteration of the James Beard Foundation Taste America culinary series: the TasteTwenty,” said Siobhan Flaherty Haber, vice president of events at the James Beard Foundation. “Each inaugural TasteTwenty chef comes with exceptional talent and a commitment to community that extends far beyond the plate. By sharing their stories and unique perspectives, we hope Taste America attendees are inspired to support the Foundation in our mission to promote a delicious and thriving food culture for all.”

The James Beard Foundation looks forward to continuing to celebrate local independent restaurants, while championing a standard of good food anchored in talent, equity, and sustainability. A portion of proceeds from each event will go directly to the participating chefs’ restaurants, with the remaining proceeds benefitting the James Beard Foundation’s national programming, including the Open for Good campaign. The Open for Good campaign is an initiative committed to helping independent restaurants survive the COVID-19 crisis, rebuild stronger, and thrive for the long term.
